The first impression people receive from Royal Panda Casino is usually warm and inviting, making you either not want to leave or ready to come back for more. Launching in 2014, the casino has managed to hold a stellar reputation for their impressive game selection and their Royal Panda Casino bonus at sign-up to welcome in all new players. Their royal yet laid back atmosphere provides a safe and friendly experience that one would expect after seeing a giant friendly panda as their mascot. Below we took a look at just how royal new players and old players feel while playing.

Royal Panda Casino offers a sign-up bonus that is a bit smaller than most welcome bonus codes but still decent enough to try your first experience with the casino. The sign-up bonus at Royal Panda casino consists of a 100% match deposit bonus code of $100. This means that on your very first deposit you get double your money back or $200 to play around with. Most casinos will match this code with another bonus code that features free spins, but the Royal Panda casino new player sign-up bonus doesn't offer any. As with any bonus offer there comes wagering requirements to achieve before you can get the winnings. They have a reasonable playthrough requirement of 35x which is considerably low compared to other casino bonus offers.

Current players are not the only ones that can receive bonus code offers. In addition to taking care of new players with the Royal Panda Casino free welcome sign-up package, the casino offers bonus codes for their frequent players every single day. They have a great weekly promotional run called Bamboo Bonuses that involves a 50% bonus for up to $150. This is given to every single player every Friday. If you are a lover of the game blackjack they have a promotion called Lucky 21 that is given every month. blackjack players can gain $210 can when they participate. To create further suspense players won't know if they've won, however, until the next day when names are pulled from a drawing. No bonus codes are needed for these promotions. New players at Royal Panda Casino after they sign up are eligible for these weekly promotions as well.

In addition to Bamboo Bonus weeks, Royal Panda has a loyalty program where players can earn exclusive bonus codes, free spins, and more. There are certain levels that players have to earn points to achieve. Those levels are Bronze, Silver, Gold, and Diamond. Players earn points by simply playing games consistently. Some of the rewards include free spins and complimentary cash bonuses. Some of the rewards in the higher levels include expensive fashionable products like Rolexes, and exclusive all paid trips. Again, players at Royal Panda Casino after they sign-up, can enter into the loyalty program and earn points to receive prizes as well.

Royal Panda strays a little from the norm when it comes to its sign up offer. Each new player has an opportunity to claim a deposit match bonus of 100% up to 100 CAD. However, the funds are not immediately available for the player to use. A player has to play through his/her initial deposit first before the extra funds can be accessed or withdrawn. This is called a post wager bonus. There are certain advantages to this method. For instance, most casinos that immediately avail the bonus to the player will not allow the player to access any winnings before meeting the prevailing conditions. However, at Royal Panda Casino, the player can withdraw any winnings as long as they do not devolve from the bonus amount. Specific terms have to be fulfilled before the bonus can be cashed out.

Players can accrue points each time they wager in Royal Panda Casino. The points will help the customer level up in the loyalty program. They may also be redeemed for cash rewards or for a novelty item in the Loyal Panda Shop.

The gaming library has about 600 titles which is nothing to be awestruck about. However, the Royal Panda mobile casino offers almost five hundred games including some live dealer titles. This sets it apart from any peer casino that only offers a small fraction of their gaming library in their portable versions.

By the time the casino was being established, live gaming was all the craze. The live gaming section in this establishment is something to behold. It surpasses the puny selections that players are used to in peer casinos to result in an eclectic mix of live blackjack, live roulette, and live baccarat.

Royal Panda credits its wide acclaim from the live dealer collection. The games incorporate a variety of customizable features such as camera angles, sound controls, screen toggling, and background lighting. Most of the live games will also include a live chat option where the players can communicate with each other and with the live dealers in real-time. Players may also select their preferred dealers before beginning the games. Royal Panda mobile has 17 out of the 23 titles in the live dealer collection. This makes it one of the leading mobile live gaming casino libraries in the industry. Royal Panda reviews have lauded the casino on several occasions for its live gaming collection. Players will find live dealer games such as:

The bulk of slots consists of recognizable titles from Microgaming, NetEnt, and other software vendors. Royal Panda has over 300 slot games consisting of progressive, jackpot, classic, and five-reel video slots. The site has a unique section that classifies slots as hot or cold depending on how often or recently the slots have paid out. Moreover, there are numerous jackpot slots that many Royal Panda Casino reviews have pointed out to be lucrative aside from being fun. Some of the jackpot slots include:

Slot games come with a variety of features such as diverse themes, soundtracks, and colour schemes. However, it is a popular opinion among online slot reviews that Royal Panda slots are of excellent graphics quality and even better design functions. Free slots only avail the demo versions. Try the real money slots for all the features.

You would expect an online establishment of such calibre to include virtual reality games seeing as it is the new trend in town. Nevertheless, it seems that the wave has not yet hit Royal Panda. There is no mention of virtual games or any prospects of including them soon.

As the number of online casinos is countless and it is difficult to spot the best ones, we aim to guide you through the world of online gambling. For that, we test all the top casinos first-hand and check how well they perform so that you can wager risk-free and comfortably. We also recommend you play responsibly and if necessary, visit an official site of problem gambling services where you can be assisted with professional help and support.

Royal Panda is a casino with a strong international focus, and a great Loyal Panda reward scheme for bonuses and prizes. Royal Panda is owned by respected provider Leo Vegas, and is licenced by the GB gambling commission and the Maltese Gaming Authority – so you know your details and funds are in safe hands. And with over 250 games to splash your cash on, there's no shortage of fun ways to spend (and hopefully win) during your time here!

Royal Panda doesn't have the biggest selection of live casino games, but it's far from the smallest we've seen either. All are hosted by industry heavyweight Evolution Gaming, so you can be assured they are quality titles that won't let you down. As well as this they have three custom tables, featuring Royal Panda branding and exclusive offers – although this is only for blackjack and roulette at the time of writing. As well as various versions of blackjack, baccarat, roulette and poker (covering all budgets from 50p per spin party play to high rolling VIP tables) they also offer Evolution's immersive roulette experience and a Wheel of Fortune type game called Dream Catcher. They also have Evolution's new Salon Privé tables for Roulette and Blackjack, where you can play 1 on 1 with the dealer for a true VIP casino experience.

When it comes to localisation, Royal Panda offers Evolution Gaming's German and Swedish live roulette tables as well as bunch of languages for their site. All easily accessible from the main homepage, these are: English, Dutch, Swedish, Spanish, Portuguese, Chinese, Finnish, Norwegian and Japanese.

There are three private tables in the Royal Panda live casino section. These are Royal Panda Live Roulette and then a VIP and standard version of blackjack. To be honest we felt the Royal Panda branding didn't add much to the experience, but at least it wasn't hugely invasive. The real draw is the exclusive offers that come up from time to time, which aren't available on the regular Evolution Live Casino tables. For regular players, the different hosts and surroundings might also help change things up a little between sessions.

All the usual payment methods (Paysafe, Skrill, Nettle, Visa, MasterCard) are present at Royal Panda as well as a whole host of global payment options befitting their mission to be an international online casino. The full list is: (deep breath) AstroPay, DineroMail, EcoPayz, e-pro, ewire, Giro Pay, iDebit, InstaDebit, Interac Online, iWallet, Sofort, Todito Cash, Transferencia, Trustly, Venus Point and Zimpler. While impressive, bear in mind that many of these are localised options that probably won't be suitable for you and your currency.

But it's nice to know they are there! Users should also be aware, that withdrawals are only allowed through bank cards, bank transfer, Neteller and Skrill. Both bank options take 1-5 days and the two e-wallets are instant. During our review we couldn't actually find a list of the currencies accepted, even in the T&Cs, but the live chat support assistant (shout out Matt!) was quick to assist us and we had the info in less than a minute.

So, straight from the, err, Panda's mouth – the accepted currencies at Royal Panda are: EUR, GBP, INR, CAD, BRL, SEK, NOK, JPY, NZD and USD.

Absolutely. They have always been legitimate – but to assure you even further, they were recently purchased by Leo Vegas. This is a publicly traded company so you can be sure that your funds and information are always safe.

Royal Panda has a two tier focus – international appeal and an innovative reward scheme that offers more than just free spins and casino bonuses. With a wide range of international currencies and deposit methods, it's clear they have made an effort to provide a great casino space for global customers. However, the fact that the withdrawal options are limited to the industry standard five or so methods is a bit disappointing.

The reward scheme is where Royal Panda definitely shines though – with a nice range of Royal Panda branded items, luxury trips to Las Vegas, Rolex Watches, Apple tablets and more available. It certainly makes a change from the bonus/free spins centric reward programmes at most casinos. Some of these things do however cost a lot of points, so it might take you a while to save them up.

Latest innovation by Evolution Gaming, Lightning Roulette combines the excitement of playing live roulette with the winning potential of slots. Before every spin, between 2 and 5 numbers are awarded an improved multiplier between 50 and 500 times of your wager.

It gets better. The RTP on it is matching that of European Roulette (97.30%) which means that you give up nothing, but get to play a much more exciting variation of live roulette.
