I'm reading all the negative reviews and wondering if I'm playing the same game(s) as they are. The most frustrating thing to me is to get with an offer of, let's just say for the sake of this review, 100,000 coins for "watching this video". I would almost rather see an add for soap than to have to sit through an ad for another app and then have to download that app to get the coins. Also, if you don't link your Facebook account with the app you miss out on a lot of good offers, free coins, and advancement. I'm not going to link my Facebook account. I don't want to be that person who clogs up casino stars slots friends play with the newsfeed with "Johnny just won 1000 coins in the alligator swamp" over and over again. I don't want to be that person who invites their friend list to play. People hate that! I suppose I could set up a fake FB account and use it....other than that I LOVE these games. I wish the slots in Tunica were as loose as these. Last night I won 3 slot tournaments in a row. I did notice something kind of fishy though. I had gotten down to 100 credits. I'd been playing for 2 weeks without purchasing any coins, so I decided to go ahead and spend $2.99 for a million coins. As soon as I got credit for those coins the games loosened up drastically! I was hitting jackpot after jackpot. If you're looking for something to pass the time then I feel like this choice of games are better than most.

So , why is playing with a strategy for these stars play casino slots friends with games any different than using a strategy for playing slots?

I do enjoy this game. People who complain about the payouts on higher bets maybe don't live near or visit real casinos often. Most slots hit more on lower bets with smaller amounts casino slots friends stars with play than when you raise the bet because the payout increases that's Tho I feel like before they changed it up coins lasted longer. I do buy coins every now and then but you shouldn't expect people to constantly have to buy coins to play. Bonus even on lower bets don't seem to hit at all anymore and it's almost impossible to complete a the challenges and events because of this which to me is very disappointing because I use to love the events. You can't even play some games more than a few mins because the minimum bets are so high. I like to go up and down with my bets as I play so hardly getting play time at minimum bet especially when it's so hard to collect coins without making a purchase is ridiculous for a virtual casino game. Also the price of coins on pop is why I make them so rarely now. Offer more $.99 deals or even a few $1.99 deals. Not saying lower your prices but I don't even get any special offer on deals like this anymore. I like the tournaments at first because I go to slot tournaments irl in my home town so I liked that addition but the amounts you have to bet really need to change. Because i only get options to make huge first or second bets that the end payout isn't worth it at all.

After playing this game for a few weeks now I can say that it is a fun slot game with great variety. Plays smoothly. The downside I see are with payouts. Most days I with friends slots stars play casino am scraping to play for 5 min at a time. I was liking the game so much that I was about to buy a package and didn't have my wallet to enter my card details so I figured I'd wait till the next day. But after that my returns have been horrible. It's seems like the higher I bet and the higher my level gets the worse my odds get. For example: I am on the Dance of Fortune quest and started that game with about 100B coin I max betted through all of it only to get back 16% of the "win 36B coin" task. I have spun that game between 500 and 600 times now and have only hit one special play of hitting the 6 dragons. Not a single scatter play in over 500 spins. The ads always want you to pay to spin the wheel for a "chance" to win a grand prize when all I have ever won from those is bottom two. No chance I am paying $5 just to win the smallest prize on that wheel. I feel as though my winnings/progress is being throttled back. I go and play real slots almost every week and I have much better returns and odds at the real casino when you would think it would be the other way around seeing as you can't actually win anything playing this game. I can't justify paying any real money to this game. Shame

I downloaded this because of the Trisha Paytas slot machine. I have played others for years and there isn't anything particularly better or worse than this app compared to others so I'm not sure why others seem to not like it. Buying coins is optional (and unnecessary since you get more every hour and/or can watch ads), how much you bet is optional, which game to play is optional... not too sure why others don't enjoy it :shrug: I have mine linked to Facebook just so I don't potentially lose any progress, especially if there's an update or if using on a different device BUT if I win big or something else that "requires" a post, I just clicked the X to close it so it doesn't actually post. You still get the rewards you were getting without clogging the news feed or any of the other negative affects of posting to Facebook. I can't stand those either. Hopefully that helps someone who might otherwise not link them or think you have to post it. I don't let it automatically do it for me for that reason with slots casino friends play stars too.

However, these objects only appear stars friends slots with casino play in the background of the game, meaning that the reels themselves are filled with a series of icons that, quite frankly, don't inspire much from the imagination. They say statistically customers only write a reviews when they have a negative experience and I rather enjoyed this game. They are constantly updating and adding new features, but everyone knows that sometimes when you add new things sometimes old things break. The best way to solve a problem when presented by a issue you created is to admit fault, fix the problem, and try to make it right with anyone affected by the problem. Luckily these developers practice gaslighting and lack accountability to admit fault which created enough resentment in me to give them a one star/ bad review. The developers added a new feature that broke another one with friends casino play stars slots which made me actually lose my "In App" purchases. When presenting them with this problem they gladly told me to have fun and deny that the problem exists. I am glad their customer service practices the art of gaslighting, because really what I paid for was me questioning my own sanity, which led me to question why on earth was I giving money to people who have this characteristic. This gave me a flashback to my drug seeking days, which made me realize my drug dealer never cared about anything but the money. This one "In App" purchase gave me a moment of self reflection to admit I have a addictive personality and there is always someone to exploit this for a profit. If they had good customer service I would still be playing and not realize I need to go find the local Gamblers Anonymous.
